Argiers, June 20.

BY an Expreſs, who arrived here this day from Tunis, we have advice, that the Forces which went lately from hence, having joyned with thoſe commanded by Mahomet Bey (which made together about 20000 men) they marched againſt Alley Bey, younger Brother of Mahomet, whoſe Forces exceeded theirs in number; Alley Bey obſerving the Algierines, took his opportunity to fall upon them in their Camp when they leaſt expected it, and killed 13 or 1400 of them before they could put themſelves into a poſture of defence, but the Algierines having at laſt got to their Arms, and recovering out of their firſt diſorder they engaged with the Army of Tunis, and after a ſharp fight entirely defeated and put them to flight, taking their Tents and Baggage and four Braſs Guns which were all they had; Alley Bey with about 20 of his men flying to an old unfortified Caſtle about a days journey from Tunis, which Ibrahim Hodge General of the Algierine Camp having notice of, ſent to demand him, letting the Owner of the Caſtle know, that if he did not deliver him, he muſt uſe force, having orders to ſend his Head to the Grand Signior, to which he had not received an anſwer when this Expreſs came away; but he tells us that Ibrahim Hodge was ſetling Mahomet Bey in the Government of Tunis.

Genoua, Auguſt 12. The 9th Inſtant arrived here from Leghorne the Diamond bound for Spain; The 10th the Succeſs from Thoulon, and this day the Lion from Lisbon, and the Zant Frigat from Alicant. This Senate are ſending two Deputies, Signior Franciſco Maria Saoli and Signior Lucca Spinola, to the Governor of Milan, to Sign the Defenſive League concluded between the Crown of Spain and this Republick; It's ſaid theſe People oblige themſelves to maintain 12 Gallies, 6 Men of War, and 6000 Men in Lombardy; And the Spaniards 30 Gallies, 20 Men of War, and 16000 Men.

Marſeilles, Auguſt 21. The Argier Ambaſſadors are ſtill here expecting the return of the French Gallies from the Coaſt of Catalonia, that they may receive and carry home with them the Algierine Slaves on board the ſaid Gallies, which may be between 2 and 300; and in the mean time the Ambaſſadors are kept at the King's charge, and are lodged at a Houſe about four or five miles from hence. We have advice that a Man of War of Tripoli, which ſailed from Argiers, hath lately taken a ſmall French Ship. At Thoulon are ſix Men of War ready to ſail, but we know not on what Expedition.

Leopol, Auguſt 4. Yeſterday the King of Poland arrived here, and to morrow will part again from hence to joyn his Army, which marches towards Caminiec. It is ſaid that the King hath received advice that 50000 Turks have paſſed the Danube, and that they advance with a great body of Tartars towards Podolia.

Vienna, Aug. 13. Our laſt Letters from the Imperial Camp before Buda of the 8th Inſtant tell us, that the day before very early in the morning the Beſieged made a great Sally; and at firſt obliged the Chriſtians to give way, but theſe being ſeconded by the next Guard, beat back the Enemy; The ſame day the Beſiegers ſprang a Mine near the place where the Turks had their principal Battery, but it had not the intended effect; and that in two or three days ſeveral other Mines would be ready; That the Beſiegers were lodged in one of the Breaches they had made in the Wall of the Town, and notwithſtanding the vigorous reſiſtance of the Enemy, hoped in a very ſhort time to be Maſters of the place. General Schultz who hath been encamped for ſeveral days with the Troops under his command near Roſenberg on the Waag to cover Sileſia and Moravia againſt the Incurſions of the Rebels, underſtanding that Count Teckeley has taken his march towards the Country of Scepuſe, he is likewiſe marching that way to hinder the deſign he may have upon Leutſch and Zipſerhaus.

Vienna, Auguſt 17. Yeſterday parted from hence 13 Boats laden with all ſorts of Ammunition for the Imperial Army; and the ſame day marched from hence for Hungary five Companies of Foot of the Regiment of Thun. The Elector of Bavaria is expected here to morrow or next day; 6000 Foot of his Troops are coming down by Water, and two Regiments of Horſe and one of Dragoons by Land; We are likewiſe expecting three Imperial Regiments, which were lately ſent towards the Empire under the command of Colonel Herbeville; and theſe Troops will make all the haſte they can to joyn the Imperial Army; which we are told is very much weakened. Yeſterday arrived here an Expreſs from the Imperial Camp, by whom we have an account, that the Beſiegers had ſprung all their Mines, which had very well ſucceeded, having made a very large breach in the Wall of the Town, but that the Duke of Lorrain had not thought fit to give a general Aſſault, for that he found the beſieged had made a great Retrenchment behind the ſaid Wall, and that he underſtood there was a very ſtrong Gariſon in the place; His Highneſs had learnt from ſome Priſoners that were taken, that their Baſſa Cara Mahomet was dead of a wound he had received during the Siege. We have Letters from General Leſlie's Camp of the 4th Inſtant which tell us, that the Seraſquier Baſſa, or General of the Ottoman Forces in Hungary, who was defeated by the Duke of Lorrain near Buda, had poſted himſelf with his remaining Troops near the Bridge of Eſſecke to expect the Forces that are ſaid to be on their march from Bulgaria, Servia, and Boſnia to joyn him; That General Leſlie having finiſhed his Bridge over the Drave at Thurannitz, had cauſed the Regiment of Heiſter to paſs it the 4th Inſtant, and that the reſt of the Army would follow the next day.

Ratisbonne, Auguſt 24. A Truce for 20 years being now eſtabliſhed between the Emperor and the Empire and France, and between that Crown and Spain, it's not doubted but the Princes of the Empire will employ their Forces againſt the Turks;
